Local Information, Part II

Meeting and Lodging

Conference rooms

International House (<http://www.uchicago.edu/adm/ihouse>)

International House provides four conference rooms: Assembly Hall, Coulter Lounge, Home Room, and Map Room (see Appendix 3 for room capacities and rates), it also offers accommodation for conference participants. It is close to the center of the U of C campus, near the Museum of Science and Industry, and one block from the train to Chicago's downtown.

Housing

1. International House provides dormitory-style single rooms. With 508 rooms, International House is home to students from over 50 different countries, studying in diverse fields.

2. A single room has a bed, a desk, a dresser, two chairs, a closet, bookshelves, and a lamp. Washrooms are located on each floor. Many singles also have a ceiling fan. The average room is 117 sq. ft. An average single room costs $45 per person/per night.
3. There are a limited number of double rooms, bath suites (two independent rooms sharing a common bathroom), and tower rooms.

Board

Food could be ordered from local restaurants.

Beyond the Conference

Chicago offers an endless variety of places to explore and things to do. There are museums of every kind (Art Institute of Chicago, Field Museum, John G. Shedd Aquarium, Field Museum, Museum of Science and Industry, etc.); dance, theatre, and music venues; plus ethnic and cultural riches in food, music, and shopping (Magnificent Mile, Marshall Field's, Pilsen, Chinatown, Korea Town, Greek Town, etc). UC TSA and local Taiwanese communities can arrange a city tour for conference participants.
